School rate discount checklist:

1. Has one of the parents/caregivers currently been living in Aruba for more than 5 consecutive years?

- yes no

(If yes, please add a certificate of registration from the Civil Registry of AWG 10,00 of both parents/caregivers) Question 4 does not apply to you.

2. Has any of the parents/caregivers been posted by the Dutch central government: Defense, "RST", the Judiciary, Public Prosecution Service, Tax and Customs Administration, etc.?

- no yes, posted by:

3. Is one of the parents/caregivers an admitted employee from outside Aruba: Hospital, education, commercial company (accountancy, "TNO", etc.)?

- no yes, employed by:

4. If you have recently emigrated to Aruba, can you prove that one of the parents/caregivers was born and raised in Aruba (for at least 12 years)?

- yes no

(If yes, please add a certificate of registration from the Civil Registry of AWG 10,00 of one of the parents/caregivers)

A student is eligible for a discount, if question 1 or question 4 can be answered "yes". The other information is important to us in connection with agreements and consultation with employers.

If you are expected to stay temporarily in Aruba and are liable to pay taxes in Aruba, we advise you to ask the tax authorities and your employer whether you qualify for the expat scheme and the corresponding tax exemption for educational costs.
